

An administrator assigns a validated volunteer to an active assistance request. The system retrieves submitted requests, updates the selected request to ASSIGNED, notifies the volunteer, records the volunteer's acceptance and work progress, updates the request to COMPLETED, saves the completed request, and confirms that the assignment has been completed.

