

A user opens the Hurricane Relief application to view active hurricane conditions and submit an assistance request. The system loads current hurricane event data, displays the storm status, finds the nearest shelter, checks available capacity, creates and saves the request, reserves shelter capacity, creates an emergency alert, and confirms the request to the user.

